Warning

Knowingly or recklessly giving the PRA information, which is false or misleading in a material particular, may be a criminal offence (sections 398 and 400 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000). SUP 15.6.4R requires an authorised person to take reasonable steps to ensure the accuracy and completeness of information given to the FCA or the PRA and to notify the FCA or the PRA immediately if materially inaccurate information has been provided. Contravention of these requirements may lead to disciplinary sanctions or other enforcement action by the FCA or the PRA. It should not be assumed that information is known to the FCA or the PRA merely because it is in the public domain or has previously been disclosed to the FCA or the PRA or another regulatory body. If you are not sure whether a piece of information is relevant, please include it anyway.

Data Protection

For the purposes of complying with data protection legislation, please read our privacy notice:

Bank of England's privacy notice <https://www.bankofengland.co.uk/prudential-regulation/authorisations>

This notice will tell you what to expect when the Bank of England collects personal information, including how and why we use your personal information and who to contact if you have any queries or wish to exercise your rights.

Declaration

By submitting this application form:

- I confirm that this information is accurate and complete to the best of my knowledge and belief and that I have taken all reasonable steps to ensure that this is the case.
- I am aware that it is a criminal offence knowingly or recklessly to give the FCA or the PRA information that is false or misleading in a material particular.
